Challenges	Solutions	Results
Fragmented fund and financial data across 5 disconnected systems	FundMiner unified fund, finance, recipient, and donor data in one platform	Enabled self-serve access and eliminated data silos
Manual donor reporting took 6 months to complete	Automated annual donor reporting workflows	Reduced reporting cycle time by ~50% (6 months → 3 months)
Need for greater compliance visibility and donor transparency	Continuous utilization + compliance monitoring	Improved donor trust and supported additional fundraising

"This system has been life-changing for our team. With FundMiner, we can easily access all gift information and current statuses. It also allows faculty and staff across campus to see and understand what funds are available to them. I can't imagine working without this system."
